Close this Window

The image shows a screenshot of a web browser window titled "Choose Your Website Domain". The window has a blue border and a close button (an 'X' in a blue circle) in the top right corner. A red arrow points from a callout box to the close button. The callout box contains the text "Click X to close". The main content of the window is a form with two radio button options. The first option is "Use a Subdomain of Weebly.com" with a description "A great way to get your website started" and a text input field containing "http:// [ ] .weebly.com". A large red 'X' is overlaid on this option. The second option is "Register a New Domain" with a description "For a more professional online presence" and a text input field containing "http://www. Mr [ ] SocialStudies" followed by a dropdown menu set to ".com". A green checkmark and the word "Available" are to the right of this option. A large red 'X' is also overlaid on this option.

Basic Website

About Your Teacher

I am very excited to be your child's teacher this year. This is my 12th year at ABC Elementary, but have been teaching for 20 years. I was born and raised in El Paso, graduating from ABC University in 1900.

Classroom Expectations

The children in my class should treat each other with respect. I use a token economy to reinforce this in my class children are given a token at the end of each day. The tokens are saved to "cash-in" for a prize on Friday. I read and sign the planner every day.

Formatting Content

The screenshot shows the WebClass.org interface. The 'Elements' tab is selected, and the 'Basic' category is active. The 'Paragraph' icon is being dragged into a text box at the bottom of the page. The text box contains the text 'Mr. Nelson - Grade 3'. The interface also shows a 'Home' link and a 'Bio' link. A 'Click here to edit.' link is visible below the text box.

Mr. Nelson - Grade 2

About Your Teacher

I am very excited to be your child's teacher this year. This is my 12th year at ABC Elementary, but have been teaching for 20 years. I was born and raised in El Paso, graduating from ABC University in 1900.

Classroom Expectations

The children in my class should treat each other with respect. I use a token economy to reinforce this in my class children are given a token at the end of each day. The tokens are saved to "cash-in" for a prize on Friday. I sign the planner every afternoon and read it every morning.

Select YouTube Element

The screenshot shows the Weebly website editor interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for 'Elements', 'Design', 'Pages', 'Editors', and 'Settings'. A red arrow points to the 'Elements' tab. Below the navigation bar, the 'Elements' menu is open, displaying various content elements: Photo Gallery, Slideshow, File, Audio Player, Video, Embedded Document, Flash, Google Maps, and YouTube Video. A red arrow points to the 'YouTube Video' option, which has a tooltip that says 'Drag to page'. The main content area shows a page titled 'Mr. Nelson - Grade 2'. Below the title, there are two columns of text. The left column is titled 'About Your Teacher' and contains a paragraph of text. The right column is titled 'Classroom Expectations' and contains a paragraph of text. Below the 'About Your Teacher' section, there is a placeholder image showing a group of children sitting on the ground in a courtyard. Below the 'Classroom Expectations' section, there is a placeholder image with the text 'Sample image' and 'Click Here to Edit'. At the bottom of the page, there is a link that says 'Email me anytime by completing the form below:'.

Drag YouTube Element

Enter YouTube URL

Online Handouts

<http://webclass.org>

Education and training via the internet are growing rapidly. Accessibility from home or school makes Internet handouts a viable alternative to hardcopy handouts. The PDF format is accessible on both Windows and MAC platforms using Adobe Reader, or the fast and simple open-source reader for Windows called Sumatra.

Elementary Storytelling in iTunes

View all 21 digital stories from El Paso ISD teachers and students

View In iTunes

Elementary Storytelling illustrates how video and audio tools are used to tell a story - a digital story. Curriculum topics chosen by the teacher vary from class field trips to the reenactment of historical or current events.

Some digital stories include the entire class, while others use a smaller group of selected students. Video length is generally 2 to 10 minutes.
